

HERE'S HEALTH
FOR YOU.

Obituary.

Mrs. Ann Elizabeth Collins was born near Ashtabula, Ohio, Jan. 2, 1838, and removed with her parents to Arcadia, Mo., when about four years of age. She was married to Mr. Chas. H. Collins, Aug. 6, 1857, and of this union nine children were born, only four of whom survive her: Mrs. H. C. Chase, St. Louis, Mo.; Miss Minnie Collins, employed as stenographer of street department, St. Louis; Rev. John A. Collins, a Methodist preacher of St. Louis Conference, stationed at Elvins, Mo.; and William H. Collins, who is a contractor and builder, as his father was, living at Farmington, Mo.

Mrs. Elizabeth Collins was converted in early life and joined the Methodist Church South, on Fort Hill, Arcadia, Mo., before it was a Fort Hill; from this church she was buried last Sunday afternoon, January 17, 1901.

I have known Mrs. Collins for forty years—have known her in sorrow and sunshine—so patient and consistent in her Christian duties. At the death of her little ones, which included a little daughter, burnt to death at Des Arc, who did not mourn like those who have no hope; she was sure of a life beyond the grave; the grave does not end all. Her records were written in the book of life, which, I think, is our sole reason for being here on earth; and if this is so, Mrs. Collins "could read her title clear to mansions in the skies." During her last illness, when suffering intense pain, she prayed to be relieved, for she was prepared—only waiting for the summons: "Come unto me and rest."

HEALTH

"I don't think we could keep houses without Thedford's Black-Draught. We have used it in the family for over two years with the best of results. I have not had a doctor in the house for that length of time. It is a doctor in itself and always ready to make a person well and happy."—JAMES HALL, Jacksonville, Ill.

Because this great medicine relieves stomach pains, frees the constipated bowels and invigorates the torpid liver and weakens kidneys is necessary in the home where Thedford's Black-Draught is kept. Families living in the country, miles from any physician, have been kept in health for years with this medicine as their only doctor. Thedford's Black-Draught cures biliousness, dyspepsia, colds, chills and fever, bad blood, headaches, diarrhoea, constipation, colic and almost every other ailment because the stomach, bowels, liver and kidneys so nearly control the health.
